

Initial Preventive Physical Examination (Medicare)

Eligible patients may now receive the initial preventive exam for Medicare (the new benefit that Medicare has provided). We understand it is difficult to find a provider that is offers this service. The Center for Women's Care has completed the preparations and is now ready to provide this service utilizing the Women's Health Nurse Practitioner as well as the EKG services at the hospital.